

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS AND OTHERS.

---

THE Moravian Historical Society being very anxious to collect, in a safe and accessible place, all documents, etc., relating to the history of the Moravian Church, will be grateful for donations of such to its collection, and proposes also to receive on deposit all books, manuscripts, relics, etc., etc., which shall still be considered the property of their owners, shall be so labeled and catalogued, and shall at any time be returned on demand.

Donations or deposits of the following are solicited :—

1. Books and pamphlets that relate in any manner to the Moravian Church, from the earliest times, whether written by Moravians or others, for or against Moravianism.

2. Copies of printed sermons, or other religious or literary productions of Moravians.

3. Printed or manuscript histories and statistics of single congregations.

4. Manuscript journals, autobiographies, letters of ministers and laymen, and even when these are not considered of historical interest, maps, pictures, and relics.

Papers on subjects of historical or antiquarian interest, and essays relating to the condition and the development of the Church in our own times, are also especially desired.

Address the “Moravian Historical Society, Nazareth, Northampton County, Pennsylvania.”